2022 Frances Walton Competition Finals

Saturday, June 4, 2022

9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

University Congregational United Church of Christ

4515 16th Ave NE, Seattle, WA 98105-4201

Open to the Public

Due to the changing situation with the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Ladies Musical Club of Seattle reserves the right to adjust elements of the FWC Finals, including dates and format, as needed in response.

FWC Finals Performance Requirements

Program information deadline: May 1, 2022

- List finals repertoire, including composer birth and death dates
- Biography - 150 words or less
- Head shot in JPG form
- Materials must be submitted to awards@lmcseattle.org NO LATER THAN MAY 1, 2022.

Finalists risk forfeiting their finalist position if materials are not received by May 1, 2022.

Time Limit. 15-20 minutes in length, including a brief spoken introduction and pauses between pieces. Five additional minutes for setup and tuning will be allowed. After 20 minutes the performance will be stopped. Finals Judges will be assessing your ability to speak to an audience as well as the excellence of your musical performance.

Accompaniment. Soloists (other than guitar) may use piano accompaniment only. No prepared piano or electronic enhancements.

Single movements of larger works are acceptable.

Repertoire submitted in the first round may be used but is not required.

Collaborative Pianists. Finalists will arrange and pay for their own collaborative pianist (referrals supplied upon request).

Additional Requirements – Solo Division

Strings

- No concertos or accompaniment of any sort for guitar
- Repertoire must include one selection from the Baroque or Classical periods, and one selection from the Romantic or Twentieth Century – Present periods

Woodwinds/Brass

- Repertoire must include one selection from the Baroque, Classical, or Romantic periods, and one selection from the Twentieth Century – Present periods

Strings	10:15 AM – 1:35 PM
Woodwinds/Brass/Recorder/Percussion	12:30 PM – 3:25 PM
Voice	1:35 PM – 4:40 PM
Small ensemble	3:25 PM – 5:00 PM

Travel. All travel arrangements and costs are the responsibility of the finalist, including transportation after arrival in Seattle.

Lodging. A limited number of home stay opportunities are available on a first-come, first-served basis with members of the Ladies Musical Club of Seattle. Otherwise, housing is the responsibility of the contestant. Please contact Mary Anne Braund at mabraund@convoglio.com for information on home stays.

Rehearsal. Each soloist and each ensemble will be assigned a 30-minute rehearsal in the performance space on the day before the finals round. Three other rooms, two with grand pianos and one with an upright piano, will be available during the same time period for practice.

Piano and Music Stands. A nine-foot Yamaha CFX will be available in the performance hall, tuned at A=440. Standard Manhasset music stands will be provided.

Instrument Rentals. No financial assistance is available from the Ladies Musical Club of Seattle for instrument rentals. All finalists, except pianists, must provide their own instrument for the FWC Finals. Pianists will play the instrument provided.

Smoking policy. No person may smoke in any part of the building or on the grounds of University Congregational United Church of Christ.

Finalist Award. $250 will be presented to each competitor, along with adjudicators' comments after the finals performance.

Announcement of Winners. The FWC Winners will be announced at 6:30 PM on the day of the competition in the performance hall. There will be a short meeting for winners and alternate winners immediately after the announcement.

- Two solo winners, one small ensemble winner, two solo alternates, and one small ensemble alternate will be chosen. Should a Solo Winner or Small Ensemble Winner refuse to complete their assigned FWC Tour, an alternate Solo Winner or alternate Small Ensemble Winner shall be chosen at the discretion of the Ladies Musical Club of Seattle and given the entirety of the FWC award package including the FWC Tour and cash prize as well as the right to claim the title of "Frances Walton Competition Winner."

- The Ladies Musical Club of Seattle reserves the right to adjust the number of winners and shall have sole authority to interpret all rules and procedures relating to the Frances Walton Competition or to any particular applicant, including eligibility to participate or to receive a cash prize.
- It is highly likely that FWC Winners will be required to show proof of vaccination against COVID-19 in order to perform in public schools in the State of Washington on the FWC Tours.
- The FWC Winners' cash prizes will be awarded at the successful completion of the FWC Winners' September 2022 tour. Successful completion of the tour is a material component of the Frances Walton Competition and is a required condition of the award and payment of the prize package as well as the right to claim the title of "Frances Walton Competition Winner."
