ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Tallā Rouge, meaning “The Red Gold,” was established by the fiery Persian-American & Cajun-American violists, Aria Cheregosha & Lauren Spaulding. Formed under the mentorship of Roger Tapping at The Juilliard School, & Karoly Schranz of the Takács Quartet, the LGBTQ+ ensemble made their debut virtually with “Music for Food” in 2020. Tallā Rouge has since been recognized by the Catalyst Quartet as Nola ChamberFest’s “Emerging Artists” of the year, and is featured as an Emerging Ensemble at the 2022 American Viola Society & International Viola Congress. Tallā Rouge’s intrinsic need to capture the spirit of music is fueled by a mutual love for outreach, accessibility, and authenticity — values that set the tone for the duo’s refreshingly intimate stage presence. Sharing the belief that “good music is good music,” Tallā Rouge presents the works of living composers alongside reimagined classical works inviting an open dialogue through their diverse programming.

ABOUT THE FRANCES WALTON COMPETITION

Named for its eponymous cellist, educator, conductor, and composer, the Frances Walton Competition has provided a unique opportunity for Classical musicians ages 20 to 35 to audition for an award package including generous cash prizes; a live performance on Classical KING-FM 98.1, one of the premier Classical music stations in the U.S.; and an outreach and recital tour of locations throughout Washington State.

LMC's Mission

Ladies Musical Club is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization in Washington State whose mission is to foster classical music in the community through education, performance, and awards. We do this by offering free music and education programs to people of all ages and diverse backgrounds in person and online.
